

SMOKE STACK RHINO

Biography

Smoke Stack Rhino are a four-piece band from Melbourne, Australia renowned for their unique blend of Blues Rock.

Formed in 2013 around the concept of “bringing the blues back to the mosh pit”, the band has successfully bridged the gap across the Blues, Roots and Rock music genres. Featuring dual vocalists, twangy blues guitar and harmonica, funky slap bass and hard-hitting drums, Smoke Stack Rhino are a live music experience second to none.

The group has solidified its reputation as a audience-favourite on the Australian festival circuit. The band headlined the 2015 Arockalypse Music Festival, 2013 Icy Creek Music Festival, closed the 2014 Bendigo Blues & Roots Festival and was invited to play the official MOJO Burning Festival after-party. In September 2017, they fly to Queensland for the Mitchell Creek Blues & Roots Festival.

Alongside these achievements the group has recorded two EPs, received airplay on national radio stations Triple J and Triple M, supported international artists, toured nationally and released three music videos.

The band recently self-funded and released its debut album, “Love and Other Monsters”. In what could be a first for an Australian artist all recording, mixing, mastering, production and publicity for the album was financed through 2 years of live performances.

In support of the album, Smoke Stack racked up 10,000+km on a 19-date, self-booked national tour of Australia that saw them play in 5 states and territories.

With the Love and Other Monsters album successfully launched, the band is turning its attention to the Australian festival circuit.

“Catchy, bluesy, rootsy rock...” Ugly Phil, Triple M

“Love the stompin’ blues sound...” - Sarah Howells, Triple J
